

HIGH ON DAVENPORT

ional Evidence Before the Congress Committee.

District-Attorneys Testify to Doubtful Transactions.

Refused to Approve His Bill, and Judge Wallace Declined to Him.

The Fitch Congressional Committee resumed today, in room 135 of the Federal Building, its investigation of Chief Federal Judge John L. Davenport. Ex-District-Attorney Walker testified: "Mr. Davenport never submitted any bills to me until some time after the election of 1888. Then he left a mass of bills on my desk, covering a period of three years or more. I gave them a cursory examination and sent word to him that I could not conscientiously approve them on such meagre information, but that if he would serve me with a notice, so as to bring the matter properly before the court, I would cross-examine him and leave the whole matter to the court."

"I never got such a notice, though I continued in office some ten months after that," Mr. Walker said. Davenport as United States Commissioner was in the habit of imposing excessive and enormous bills in cases of men arrested on his complaint as supervisor for alleged illegal registration or voting. In one case he fixed bail at $10,000. The courts disapproved of it, and in every case where an appeal was made the bail was reduced by the courts.

A rule of the United States Circuit Court required that no United States Commissioner should issue a warrant except with the approval of the prosecuting attorney. Davenport had blank warrants printed, with "Stephen A. Walker, U. S. District-Attorney," printed in a corner. When Mr. Walker called his attention to the rule of court, Davenport refused to accept the rule, and Walker's name and name of the court were printed on the warrants just the same. Then instead of handing them to the United States Circuit Court, he gave them to appointed officers of his own Court to serve them.

Abraham J. Rose testified that, though a Democrat, he had been retained as Assistant District-Attorney by Davenport. He said that he had been retained by Davenport in the matter of John L. Davenport's accounts, said Mr. Rose.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

"I requested that Mr. Mitchell excuse me, stating to him that Mr. Walker had refused to approve the accounts, and that I would prefer not to perform that duty," Mr. Mitchell said. The bills had been sworn to by Mr. Davenport, and the courts would approve of them, the presence of the District Attorney being only a formality.

MRS. PARRELL A WITNESS.

She Testifies to Having Seen Hugging and Kissing.

Miss Carlake's Suit Against Dr. Jenkins Continued.

TRIDENT, N. J., Oct. 25.—Miss Emma Carlake's suit for $20,000 damages from Dr. Jenkins for breach of promise of marriage is on trial in the Mercer County Court. It was begun yesterday, and gave promise of sensational developments. Both parties live in Bordentown, where they became acquainted in 1870, when the plaintiff was sixteen and the defendant nineteen years old.

Miss Carlake's claim is that Dr. Jenkins has courted her steadily since their acquaintance began until April 2 last, when he abruptly terminated their relations; that during a part of this time he had been paying attention to another woman, whom he has since married.

In her own behalf Miss Carlake, who is a very attractive woman, testified that Jenkins had repeatedly promised to marry her; that her family allowed him to live in her home on the distinct understanding that they were engaged; that he had sworn that he told her was a Masonic oath to be true to her in every respect.

The plaintiff's sister Anna testified to many acts of affection and endearment on the part of Dr. Jenkins towards Emma. He hugged and kissed her frequently and called her pet names.

She was cross-examined this morning. The defendant's counsel failed to shatter her evidence in any respect.

"Did you ever hear the doctor propose to your sister?" Lawyer Beasley asked.

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

"Oh! You know something about such things, then? Suppose you tell us?"

"No, sir," replied the witness. "I never saw him propose to my sister. I am generally alone when such a thing is done."

THE DAY IN WALL STREET.

New England and Reading Features of the Early Trading.

The Market Very Irregular During the Afternoon.

WALL STREET, Tuesday, Oct. 25.—The activity which has been pronounced a feature of Stock Exchange transactions of late continues unabated.

At the opening the great card was New England, which jumped a point, to 49. The rise was stimulated by reports, apparently well founded, that Boston and Maine interests had secured control of the property.

It is intimated that one share of Boston & Maine, which is selling at 182, will be given in exchange for three shares of New England. None of the directors of the latter admitted having any knowledge of a deal.

After midday New England dropped to 47 1/2. But trading advanced as suddenly from 57 1/2 to 58 1/2 on heavy trading.

The industrial were prominent throughout and ruled strong to buoyant. They advanced anywhere from 1/8 to 3/4 per cent, and were unusually active.

The dealings up to noon reached the large total of 201,945 shares, of which 41,000 were supplied of commercial bills and the drawing of bankers' bills against November contracts weakened sterling exchange. This was offset by the purchase of bills against sales of stocks by London.

Bankers' 60-days sold at 4.82 1/2, demand at 4.83 1/2, and cables at 4.85 1/2. The market was irregular in its course this afternoon. New York and New England were especially favored and advanced up and down frequently between 47 and 48 1/2. Towards the close the prices were generally a shade easier.

The industrial were buoyant for Distilling & Cattle Feeding, which sold up to 68 1/2, on large transactions, and firm for the others except National Starch, which lost the early advance.

The heading September statement will not be given out before to-morrow afternoon. It is said that it will show a profit of $1,000,000. The gross earnings of the Missouri Pacific for the third week of October were $901,000, an increase of $11,000 over the previous week.

Money was in better demand and went up to 7 per cent on call. Government certificates were weak and declined to 3 1/2.

Zimmerman & Forsyth will ship 50,000 Mexican dollars by the Steamer Germania to-morrow.

Lehigh Valley dropped to Philadelphia from 57 1/2 to 56 1/2, being started by the proceedings against the Company's New Jersey lines and the fear that a receiver will be appointed.

The New York Stock Exchange passed resolutions of sympathy for President Harrison in his war against Germany.

The following gross earnings are reported for the third week of October: Great Northern, $787,704, an increase of $8,007; Milwaukee & Northern, $40,252, an increase of $1,000; Chicago & North Western, $1,000,000, an increase of $10,000; Wisconsin Central, $130,770, an increase of $24,000.

Closing Quotations.

Stock	High	Low	Close
American Tobacco	115 1/4	114 3/4	115 1/4
American Sugar	115 1/4	114 3/4	115 1/4
American Cotton Oil	45 1/4	44 3/4	45 1/4
American Petroleum	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Copper	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Zinc	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Lead	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Tin	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Iron	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Steel	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Glass	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Paper	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Textile	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Rubber	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Leather	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Lumber	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Brick	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Cement	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Coal	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Oil	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Gas	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Water	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Electric	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Telephone	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Telegraph	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Postal	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Marine	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Air	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Space	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Time	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Weight	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Measure	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Force	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Energy	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Heat	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Light	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Sound	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Smell	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Taste	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Touch	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Feeling	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Thought	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Understanding	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Knowledge	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Wisdom	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Power	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Strength	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Wealth	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Honor	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Respect	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Esteem	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Reputation	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Credit	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Influence	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Authority	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Power	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Strength	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Wealth	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Honor	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Respect	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Esteem	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Reputation	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Credit	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Influence	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4
Amalgamated Authority	10 1/4	10 3/4	10 1/4

Escaped From the Island.

Tim Murphy, alias "Big Nose" Murphy, alias Thomas Murphy, an escaped convict, who was captured on Sixth avenue last night by Detective McCafferty, of the Central Office, was arraigned in the Tombs Court today.

Murphy was convicted of larceny and sentenced on Dec. 2, 1890, to one year in the penitentiary. In the following jail he escaped from the island in a rowboat.

May End Homestead Strike.

Significant Consultation.—Belva Lockwood in Town.

Homestead, Pa., Oct. 25.—President Weiss and President-elect Garland, of the Amalgamated Association, held a significant consultation here yesterday with various Board officials, and rumors are being circulated that the strike may be declared off.

Belva Lockwood visited Homestead yesterday for the Universal Peace Commission, and was surprised at the peaceful aspect of the town.

The non-union boarding-house of Charles Hisher was stoned Sunday night and several windows broken.

E. J. Denning's Funeral.

A Great Crowd at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The burial services over the body of Edwin J. Denning, of E. J. Denning & Co., successors to A. T. Stewart & Co., were held at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Before the arrival of the funeral party the church was crowded, and many who arrived late were obliged to stand.

Rev. Howard Bumfield, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by William M. Paxton, of Princeton, formerly pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodlawn.

Driver Held Without Bail.

John Spelman, of 349 East Ninety-fourth street, a driver of the second avenue surface road, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning without bail, pending the result of an inquest over the death of a woman who was killed by his car.

Before the arrival of the funeral party the church was crowded, and many who arrived late were obliged to stand.

Rev. Howard Bumfield, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by William M. Paxton, of Princeton, formerly pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodlawn.

Driver Held Without Bail.

John Spelman, of 349 East Ninety-fourth street, a driver of the second avenue surface road, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning without bail, pending the result of an inquest over the death of a woman who was killed by his car.

Before the arrival of the funeral party the church was crowded, and many who arrived late were obliged to stand.

Rev. Howard Bumfield, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by William M. Paxton, of Princeton, formerly pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodlawn.

Driver Held Without Bail.

John Spelman, of 349 East Ninety-fourth street, a driver of the second avenue surface road, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning without bail, pending the result of an inquest over the death of a woman who was killed by his car.

Before the arrival of the funeral party the church was crowded, and many who arrived late were obliged to stand.

Rev. Howard Bumfield, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by William M. Paxton, of Princeton, formerly pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodlawn.

Driver Held Without Bail.

John Spelman, of 349 East Ninety-fourth street, a driver of the second avenue surface road, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning without bail, pending the result of an inquest over the death of a woman who was killed by his car.

Before the arrival of the funeral party the church was crowded, and many who arrived late were obliged to stand.

Rev. Howard Bumfield, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by William M. Paxton, of Princeton, formerly pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodlawn.

Driver Held Without Bail.

John Spelman, of 349 East Ninety-fourth street, a driver of the second avenue surface road, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning without bail, pending the result of an inquest over the death of a woman who was killed by his car.

Before the arrival of the funeral party the church was crowded, and many who arrived late were obliged to stand.

Rev. Howard Bumfield, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by William M. Paxton, of Princeton, formerly pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodlawn.

Driver Held Without Bail.

John Spelman, of 349 East Ninety-fourth street, a driver of the second avenue surface road, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning without bail, pending the result of an inquest over the death of a woman who was killed by his car.

Before the arrival of the funeral party the church was crowded, and many who arrived late were obliged to stand.

Rev. Howard Bumfield, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by William M. Paxton, of Princeton, formerly pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodlawn.

Driver Held Without Bail.

John Spelman, of 349 East Ninety-fourth street, a driver of the second avenue surface road, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning without bail, pending the result of an inquest over the death of a woman who was killed by his car.

Before the arrival of the funeral party the church was crowded, and many who arrived late were obliged to stand.

Rev. Howard Bumfield, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by William M. Paxton, of Princeton, formerly pastor of the church. Burial was in Woodlawn.

Driver Held Without Bail.

John Spelman, of 349 East Ninety-fourth street, a driver of the second avenue surface road, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning without bail, pending the result of an inquest over the death of a woman who was killed by his car.</